GLENDALE IS WELL REPRESENTED AT PARADE IN L. A.

Local Legion Band and War Veterans Participate In 91st Division Events

By C. C. CLUTE
(Who, as liaison officer, went over the top with the Ninety-first at Cigarette Butte, October 26, 1918.)

With the Glendale American Legion band, under the leadership of Raymond D. Crawford, heading group No. 6 yesterday afternoon, Glendale was well represented in the big parade of the Ninety-first division veterans in Los Angeles.

The parade came as a fitting climax to the many events outlined in the program of the second annual reunion of the Ninety-first men, and the line proceeding down Figueroa street to Exposition park, was cheered by thousands who lined the street and filled the many hundreds of cars parked on either side of the parade.

Six bands furnished the martial air for the veterans. Group No. 6 composed of the Three Hundred Sixteenth engineers, Three Hundred Forty-seventh, Three Hundred Forty-eighth field artillery, Three Hundred Forty-sixth, Three Hundred Forty-seventh and Three Hundred Forty-eighth machine gun battalion, being led by the Glendale legion band.

The hottest day in Los Angeles this year brought no complaints from the veterans who, three years ago to a day, were moving along under the cover of the Fort de Hess, to take positions in the front line near Cheppy, Very and Cigarette Butte; but yesterday afternoon the men advanced in the open, the rattle of the machine gun being supplemented by the click of the movie camera as unit after unit was "shot" to perpetuate the event.

Men of Allied Armies

Following the motorcycle squad, distinguished guests, and wounded veterans of the allied armies, each wearing the uniform of his country, the Tommies, Aussies, French, Italian, Belgian veterans being heartily cheered. "Oh, yes, there was a wee bit o' Scotch in the line, too, but it was labeled in kilts, and had no kick, for the afternoon was warm."

As the veterans moved into Exposition field and found seats in the huge amphitheater, aerial bombs burst in the blue sky, leaving large puffs of white smoke reminding the veterans of the anti-aircraft making life miserable for Fritz above. A thrill was given when one bomb released a tri-colored parachute and a long line of allied colors waffled slowly downward.

Following an address of welcome by Mayor George E. Crier of Los Angeles, short and inspiring speeches were given by General McDonald, former commander of the One Hundred Eighty-first brigade, and Colonel (Continued on Page 5).

Drama Section for Tuesday Club Will Meet on October 6

The first regular meeting of the drama section of the Tuesday Afternoon club of which Mrs. R. E. Chase is curator, will be held at her home, 239 North Orange street, Thursday, October 6. The program will include a reading by Mrs. Chase of the history of the drama, and an article on "What Is Acting?"

The outline of the work to be taken up during the year will be given out at that time. Members of the section are planning to give an evening of one-act plays early in November for the benefit of the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse fund.

FUNERAL OF MRS. VAN DYKE

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Anna Van Dyke, who died Wednesday, September 21, 1921, was held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Little Church of the Flowers with Rev. C. M. Calderwood, her pastor, officiating. Mrs. Van Dyke had been ill for several months and residing with her son, C. M. Van Dyke, 406 West Lexington drive, for some time. She was a member of the First Congregational church and leaves a host of friends who will sadly miss her. Services this afternoon were in charge of the Jewel City Undertaking company.

MABEL THAYER IS VISITOR

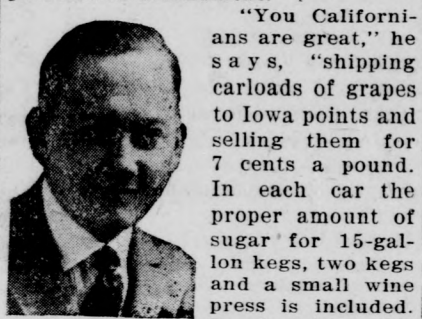

Miss Mabel Thayer, who is now teaching a course in mathematics and mechanical drawing at the Anaheim high school, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Taylor of 120 South Kenwood street yesterday. Miss Thayer formerly was supervisor of the mechanical arts department of the city schools here.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Wine Grapes in Demand
Watch Your $5 Bills
Annexation Necessary
C. of C. Succeeding

By Gil A. Cowan

HERE'S something for our Iowa friends to consider. A correspondent at Cedar Rapids writes a Glendale friend about evading the prohibition amendment.

"You Californians are great," he says, "shipping carloads of grapes to Iowa points and selling them for 7 cents a pound. In each car the proper amount of sugar for 15-gallon kegs, two kegs and a small wine press is included. People drive to the freight yards, buy the necessary quantity of grapes, have them pressed, put in the sugar and motor home with a winter's supply of California sunshine for their cellar."

Apple cider is losing caste, it seems.

A man in Modesto had a hunch that he owed it to his own home town to spend what he made where he made it. He believed it would pay him to do so, but to prove the point he marked two $5 bills so they could be identified easily.

One shirt he bought at home and received $2.25 in change from his five. The other bill went to San Francisco for a silk shirt at the bargain price of $5. Then he watched the paper money he received during a two-year period.

The bill he "busted" at home came back six times. The last time it was clear profit on a little extra work, so he celebrated by going to San Francisco. While there he spent a bit of spare change and upon checking out at the hotel he gave the clerk a $10 bill.

To his surprise he received the other marked five spot in change! It had been circulating around the bay cities all of that time. The moral of this story has been often repeated: "Money stays in the town where it is spent."

The question of annexing territory between Glendale and Burbank to this city seems to have stirred the rancor of the latter place.

"The territory belongs rightfully to Burbank," says the Review of that city.

Yet on three different occasions the residents of that section in question definitely decided they did not want to join that municipality and more than enough have signed a petition asking the opportunity of voting on the proposition of annexing to Glendale.

Glendale will be glad to have them and they will be served with the same spirit that is now noticeable in the Verdugo Woodlands and Grand View sections. They will be permitted to have their own improvement district, receive the benefits of our school system and get their share of benefits bestowed on citizens of this municipality.

However, theirs is the choice and if they do not join Glendale, by all means they should annex to Burbank before Los Angeles gobbles 'em up. The safety of Burbank and Glendale depends on contiguous boundaries.

Glendale now has more than 825 members in its Chamber of Commerce. Very good, but when other communities are considered, there is no reason why the goal of 1000 should not be reached quickly, and 1500 is not any too many boosters.

Take Tulunga for instance with 2000 population. It boasts 300 members in its chamber. Then there is Alhambra with 10,000 people in its precinct and it has 750 members. However, both cases mentioned do not have paid secretaries and the dues are small compared with Glendale.

But Glendale is getting results. So watch the chamber grow as it goes into its handsome new home on Brand boulevard. That is only one of many accomplishments which can be accredited the organization.

Two acquisitions to the reportorial staff of The Glendale Evening News are worthy of comment. We want them to get acquainted, therefore this introduction.

Arthur Sherbourne, who has been employed on the Chicago Daily News and other northern Illinois towns, is efficiently handling school assignments and other news stories for this paper. You will find him an amiable fellow, willing and able.

Clarence C. Clute also hales from Illinois, having left Galesburg with their national guard company at the outset of the war. Incidentally, he went "over the top" with the Ninety-first division and was gassed and wounded. For a year he has been editing the Holtville Daily Tribune.

Of course, everybody knows W. S. Ingram, managing editor; Gil A. Cowan, city editor; Corinne Orff, social editor; and Howard McGillis, who covers sports, etc. Get acquainted with the new men.

MISS EUNICE PEART HOSTESS IN HONOR OF BRIDE-ELECT

Miss Doris Ingledue, Who Is to Wed Ellis Thomas, Has Party Saturday Night

Miss Eunice Peart of 111 East Elk avenue entertained with a miscellaneous shower Saturday night in honor of Miss Doris Ingledue, who is soon to become the bride of Ellis Thomas. This was the first of a series of social affairs which will be given for Miss Ingledue, who is popular in social and church circles.

The evening was spent in playing buncos and charades, one side acting very cleverly the word shower. Happily Miss Ingledue guessed correctly and was thereupon presented with a clothes basket piled high with beautiful and useful gifts. The first prize at buncos was awarded Miss Lois Murphy and the consolation prize to Miss Helen Ingledue, both of whom presented the prizes to the honoree.

The color scheme of yellow and white was carried out in the floral decorations and also at small tables, which were adorned with yellow and white candles and place cards, and at which a delicious two-course luncheon was served.

List of Guests

The invited guests included Miss Doris Ingledue, Miss Laura Roberts, Miss Lois Murphy, Mrs. Frank Welles, Mrs. W. E. Lee, Miss Mary Rich, Miss Agnes Brown, Miss Dorothy Hamilton, Mrs. G. Edwin Murphy, Mrs. Carl M. Seitter, Mrs. W. E. Wolber, Mrs. W. H. Peart, Mrs. C. R. McCulloch, Mrs. C. W. Miss Eunice Peart was assisted as hostess by Miss Dorothy Peart.

Weather Once More Topic of Discussion; Yes, Folks, It's Hot

By FULLER STEAM

"Since Heck was a pup it hasn't been so hot in September," said Old Timer as he sat on a bench slowly trying to death in front of the Pacific Electric station this noon.

"Of course, 'taint right to malign our California climate, but this is most unusual weather," he continued. "Think of it. Here I'm hot up to a hundred and no shady seats except at the croquet grounds."

"And only yesterday I hid my straw hat and put on this felt kelly that melts my good nature. These haberdashers have a peculiar sense of humor to haul out fall styles for fall guys about September 15. There ain't no such thing as fall here. It's winter and summer all year round."

The Old Timer is just about right. The weather in southern California is as variable as a red-headed coquette.

Col. H. B. Hersey of the weather bureau in Los Angeles says: "Yesterday was not only the hottest September day since 1913, but it also was the hottest day of the entire year for Los Angeles."

Yes, the mercury climbed to 98 here, some of the home made thermometers showed it to be 100, but nobody died. Everybody was having too good a time a-living in this land of sunshine.

There is just one thing to remember regarding this hot spell and Old Timer says so: This is going to be a wet winter and you might as well re-sing the roof right now and otherwise get set for several bucketsful of wash water.

"I seen it come before and I expect to see it come some more the same way," concluded the Old Timer as he shifted one foot across the other to keep from getting any one part of his anatomy too sun stung.

ALFRED W. KNIGHT IS BACK

Alfred W. Knight, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Knight of 1305 East California avenue, returned to Glendale last week from a three weeks' trip to various cities in the east, where he was sent as a delegate to the annual national convention of the Tau Beta Pi fraternity. Mr. Knight, who for the past two years has been a student at the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena, is the president of the Caltek chapter of the fraternity.

Following the closing of the convention at Pittsburgh Mr. Knight traveled to New York, Philadelphia, Jersey City, Chicago and a number of other large cities, where he visited with friends and relatives. Mr. Knight has returned to the Pasadena technical institution, where he has entered his senior year.

MARY LOGAN, SOON TO BE BRIDE, IS HONOR GUEST

Mrs. Dan Campbell Is Hostess at Luncheon and Shower; Many Gifts Received

Mrs. Dan Campbell of North Maryland avenue entertained at a very pretty luncheon and shower at her home Saturday in honor of Miss Mary Logan, who is soon to become the bride of Marshall Pearson.

A color scheme of pink and blue was carried out in the living room and dining room. In the center of the luncheon table was a large blue and gold basket filled with rose-colored carnations and blue larkspur. From the chandelier to the table were draped pink satin streamers on which blue birds were fastened.

Miss Logan's place was marked with a tiny cupid with the message of health, happiness and prosperity. Miniature brides were used as place cards for the other guests. Pink bon cups were also used.

Miss Logan was the recipient of a shower of very beautiful linen embroidered towels and bath towels. Later in the afternoon when the guests were in the living room, which was also decorated with the pink flowers, Mrs. Campbell wheeled in a tea wagon, presumably to serve coffee, and on which was a silver set, including the tray, creamer, sugar bowl and the entire set, which was presented to Miss Logan as a gift from the Glendale National bank, where she has been employed.

Awarded First Prize

One of the diversions of the afternoon was a game called a Shakespearean romance, first prize being awarded to Mrs. Matthew Campbell and consolation prize to Mrs. J. Logan.

The guests included Miss Mary Logan, Mrs. John Logan, Mrs. George U. Moyle, Mrs. Matthew Campbell, Mrs. Arthur Campbell, Mrs. Seymour Smith, Mrs. Wayne Smith, Mrs. Noble Ripley, Miss Harriet Barnes, Miss Clara Pearson, Miss Lucille Tholen, Miss Virginia Huntley, Miss Kathleen Campbell and the hostess, Mrs. Dan Campbell.

MISS M'GUIRE IS HOSTESS

Miss Marguerite McGuire, who is attending the University of Southern California, was hostess Saturday night at the Dramatic Art studio of Glendale, 101 North Cedar street, which presented its regular weekly program. She was assisted by Ralph Comargo. A dumb bell drill, several recitations and pantomimes and some musical numbers composed the literary and musical bill of fare which was served on the table d'hôte plan—the courses coming one right after another.

Those who participated in the program were: Mrs. Edith Carmack, Miss Grace Carmack, Miss Alice Brennan, Miss Margaret Johnson, Miss Edith McIntyre, Robert Rose, Miss Helen May Steele, Miss Hazel C. Carr, Miss Margaret Shuck, Jim Rhodes and Ralph Comargo. They were coached by Mrs. Evelyn M. S. Labadie and Miss Dorothy Wright.

BIRTHDAY IS CELEBRATED

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Campbell of North Highland avenue entertained at a 5 o'clock tea yesterday afternoon in celebration of the twentieth birthday anniversary of their son Daniel. A large birthday cake decorated with twenty candles was one of the centers of attraction. The guests included Mrs. Campbell's father, Daniel McPeak, for whom her son Daniel was named, Miss Elizabeth McPeak, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Campbell and daughters Mary Elizabeth and Margaret, Dr. and Mrs. Matthew Campbell and daughters Katherine Mae and Eileen, Mr. and Mrs. John McPeak, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Manwaring and daughters Elizabeth and Jane, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Brand, Miss Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Campbell and sons Daniel and Arthur and daughter Kathleen.

STUDY IN THE NEWS PLANT

Rhea Baker, who is giving a course in Franklin printing press estimating at Glendale Union high school this year, had three members of his class at The Glendale Evening News office this morning studying the mechanical features of the business. He was glad to know that this office operates under the Franklin plan, the one satisfactory way of giving good work at fair prices.

LOCAL CONCERN GETS JOB

The Rommel Construction company of 131 South Brand boulevard has been awarded a contract at $6480 for the completion of the interior of four classrooms and directors' room at the Miles avenue school building, Huntington Park.

Hot Dog! Yells Polly; Canines, Cats, Chickens and Canaries Join In Chorus; Flames Flare; Slumber Is Shattered; Fire In Pet Stock Store

"Help! Fire! Murder!"

So yelled Polly, the parrot, at the Poultry and Pet Stock Exchange, 117 West Broadway, early Sunday morning.

Dogs were howling and clawing at their smoke-filled cages, rabbits panting for air, canaries chirping for air as the flames approached nearer and nearer.

Cats and chickens were scratching for freedom—an animated chorus. Mrs. Mike Vaskas of the shoe repairing shop next door was awakened from a peaceful slumber by the awful commotion.

Knowing of no better way to summon assistance after awakening her husband, Mrs. Vaskas ran out to the street screaming. Soon the whole neighborhood was awake with towed heads being poked through the windows of surrounding apartment buildings.

Somebody called the fire department who made a prompt run to the bird store, broke into the establishment and took out a burning box ignited by a gas hot plate used in heating water for dressing poultry.

The loss by smoke and water is light, but six canaries were buried today by Harry W. Saulsberry, proprietor, who has given Polly a better cage and an extra ration of sunflower seeds, just as though a Carnegie medal was due her.

City Councilman Goes to Work In Palm Beach Attire But Weather Isn't Reason

Councilman A. H. Lapham, in charge of public safety, went to work this morning in a Palm Beach suit.

That was the only clothing left after thieves had completely sacked the Lapham home at 415 West Broadway Sunday night between 7 and 8 o'clock.

Entering through a screen porch and open kitchen window, the bold robbers piled the loot in a huge box and evidently hauled it away in a motor car.

They took their choice of clothing, bedding, silverware, jewelry, kodaks and other articles of value. Mr. Lapham this morning estimated the loss at $500.

The police were dumfounded by the wholesale robbery and every effort is being made to apprehend the thieves.

Budding Author, Maybe

Another crime equally as daring was reported by A. M. Yale of Yale Brothers Realty office, 249 North Brand. Leaving the office unlocked yesterday afternoon some one walked in and took the Oliver typewriter which turns out that firm's classified advertising.

New Officers Named at Gathering Held by Live Cole Class

The regular monthly meeting of the Live Cole class of the First Christian church Sunday school took place on Friday night at the home of the pastor, Rev. Clifford A. Cole of 132 South Kenwood street, with about twenty members present. The first part of the evening was spent in a short business session, after which the young people enjoyed a general social time.

Due to the resignations recently tendered by Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Strock, who have moved from their home at 332 West Colorado street to Long Beach, a special election was held at Friday night's gathering for the purpose of filling the offices of vice-president and secretary, respectively, left vacant by them. R. B. Carlock of 415 Lincoln avenue was chosen as vice-president and Mrs. Moore of Wilson avenue is the new secretary. The other officers of the class are Mrs. Homer B. Miller of 434 West Burchett street, president, and Mrs. Harry Marple, treasurer.

Plans Are Discussed

A number of plans were discussed regarding the method of obtaining funds for the furnishing of the proposed class room in the new church building. After a lengthy discussion it was decided that the class is to have charge of a special booth at the annual bazaar of the Ladies' Aid society of the church, which is to be held in the near future. It was also decided that an entire week be set aside within the next few months as a "tithing week" for all of the members of the class.

Following an hour's enjoyment, in which the merry-makers took part in various games and contests, Mrs. Cole served the guests with a course of delicious refreshments.

Glendale Lumber Co. Is Now Completing Offices and Plant

The new office of the Glendale Lumber company, 314-328 North San Fernando Road, will be completed and ready for occupancy by one week from today, it was announced by R. E. Boyd, president of the company, who stated that work was being rushed as fast as possible on the new building.

The work has been under way for the past three weeks, and the office, 20x42 feet, will be a credit to the new company which is expecting to do a heavy business in Glendale this fall. Work on the lumber sheds has been practically completed and 300,000 feet of lumber can be stored in the buildings.

The company will be under the administration of R. E. Boyd, president of the organization, who is very enthusiastic over the prospects for this enterprise. In commenting on the organization, President Boyd said:

"The Glendale Lumber company is incorporated for $50,000, which we feel is commensurate with the needs of the community, but if we should find a steadily increasing demand with a growing Glendale, the company will be enlarged to take care of the business."

Two Realty Firms Now Consolidated

Smith-Babcock-Hamilton is the name of the realty firm now located at 204 East Broadway. This is a consolidation of the firms of Babcock & Hamilton of 208 East Broadway and E. N. Smith of 204 East Broadway. With this combination, it is stated that this firm now has one of the largest listings of properties for sale in Glendale. The amalgamation of these two firms assures the public of better service and will not doubt largely increase the combined volume of business. The insurance department, which is in charge of a lady agent, handles board companies exclusively.

GLENDALE IS BEST OF ALL

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Plummer of Eureka, Nevada, after visiting practically every point in the west on an auto trip, have returned to Glendale to reside. They are guests at the Claude Suter home 219 Hawthorne street. Mr. Plummer is a mine operator.

Henry E. Rommel of the Rommel Construction company, accompanied by his family of 903 East Broadway, enjoyed the week-end by a motor trip to San Diego. Of course, they visited Tia Juana and had their car searched before getting back in the U. S. A.

Jazz Orchestra In Truck Parades City

Al Tura and his "Frisco" jazz orchestra made their appearance on the Glendale streets Saturday night on a large truck, playing the latest popular melodies and advertising the Blue Moon dances which will be held every Saturday night at the Pearl Kellar studio, 109-A North Brand boulevard.

Novelties as original as the street parade are promised the patrons of these dances by Al Tura and hundreds of young people are awaiting the opening date with the keenest interest.—Advertisement.

There would be no fun in life if one never took risks.

In Southern California

It was warm yesterday, the sun scoring 96! Yes, and besides being hot, everyone went some place. There were those who attended the closing programs of the San Fernando Valley fair, others who say the parade of the Ninety-first division veterans in Los Angeles and thousands more who visited the new battleship California. Red lemonade and ice cream cones were big attractions. Best of all, however, the churches reported record throngs at the morning and evening services.

"Rim of World" Boosted

A tour of the "Rim of the World" was completed Sunday night by commercial secretaries of Southern California, the party numbering sixty-five. The secretaries resolved to boost this mile-high mountain playground as Southern California's outing spot and to do their part to make it famous as a playground for visiting tourists. The October meeting will be held in Oxnard, according to Secretary James M. Rhoades who, with Mrs. Rhoades, was among those present.

Girls Nearly Lose Lives

Miss M. M. McAllister and Miss Ethel Proctor of Banff, Alberta, Canada, nearly lost their lives while attempting to accomplish the feat of descending Strawberry Peak to the Crest Highway in the San Bernardino mountains, down the face of which cliff no one has ever climbed.

Open $375,000 Auditorium

Ocean Park's new municipal auditorium, just completed at a cost of $375,000, will have its first real try-out tomorrow, when several hundred delegates will assemble there for the twenty-third annual convention of the League of California Municipalities. The convention will last four days, and formal dedication of the auditorium will be a feature of the first day's session. Glendale officials will be among those present.

Movie Plant Makes Threat

Following a statement by city officials that censorship control of motion picture studios as well as of the pictures themselves was contemplated, the Metro Pictures corporation announced today that it would close its Hollywood studios until the question was settled.

"If the city attempts to take a hand in running our business, we shall simply leave Los Angeles and build a studio elsewhere," one official of the company was quoted as saying.

"A possible switch to Oskosh, Wis., Milwaukee or New York is under consideration," Milton Hoffman, west coast manager, admitted.

"The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" and other large scale productions have been made at the Metro studios.

Traveling Light, Very Light

Forty-seven trunks will be not used to convey the necessary belongings of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks upon their approaching trip to Europe. Mary announced their intended departure to friends in Los Angeles recently and stated that they expected to travel very light—accompanied by only one handbag and one small steamer trunk. She said on the next trip two toothbrushes probably would be sufficient.

Now Go Ahead and Eat

A hungry public has been waiting with wide open mouths through many meal times within the past few months feverishly waiting for statistical experts of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce to count the number of vegetables produced in the United States. These aforesaid figure jugglers have at last completed their job. They find that California ranks first in the production of asparagus, cantaloupes, celery, lettuce, onions and spinach; third in green peas and tomatoes; fifth in green beans, seventh in watermelons, tenth in cucumbers and thirteenth in sweet corn. The feast may now continue!

Joe Martin Unable to Appear; Trainer Breaks Leg at Fair

This is a tale of monkeys and animal trainers and lions! As star of "A Monkey Hero" now playing at the Glendale Theatre, Joe Martin, well known simian disciple of Darwin, was to have appeared in person tonight in Glendale.

Unfortunately the monkey will be unable to keep his engagement and meet the citizens of this city because his trainer, Curley Stecker, broke his leg yesterday wrestling with a lion at the San Fernando fair. But the show will be worth seeing just the same.

Tom Mix gave some of his celebrated rollicking entertainment at the Glendale Theatre yesterday, when his latest William Fox picture, "After Your Own Heart," was shown here with the Joe Martin comedy. Tom, as usual, went back to his memory of the good old days on the range for some new stunts. It is a lively story of life in a country where disputes were many and were adjudged only after some strenuous conflict. Pathe News and Topics of the Day complete the bill. Tomorrow vaudeville features the program.

MRS. MOTTERN IS HOSTESS

Members of the young people's branch of the W. C. T. U. will hold a "Frances E. Willard" meeting tonight at the home of Mrs. R. W. Mottern, 211 North Adams street.

HEAT KILLS CAT AT SHOW

Weather conditions proved quite unfavorable for the Cat Show that was held in San Fernando, in connection with the fair, on Friday and Saturday of last week. When Mrs. Stella Goodman of 645 North Central avenue motored to the show on Saturday morning she found that her beautiful four months' old Persian kitten, that had taken second prize the day before, and for which she had refused an offer of $20, had succumbed to the heat. Three other very fine cats had broken out of their cages during the night and at the present writing had not been found.

DISCUSS RAIL EXTENSION

The railroad committee of the Chamber of Commerce is meeting with officials of the Glendale & Montrose railroad at 3 o'clock this afternoon to determine the feasibility of extending that company's line out of Glendale from La Crescenta to Tujunga.

HE FAVORS 3 COMMUNITIES

C. A. Wishart lives in Eagle Rock. He conducts a battery business in Glendale. Now he is having a five room bungalow built at Burbank in Sunset canyon so that he may spend the week-ends there. That is certainly sharing interest in three communities.

Millions of dead grasshoppers floated down the St. Lawrence river recently. At Three Rivers, Quebec, the insects covered the river from bank to bank at one point. New York agriculturists believed that, having eaten everything behind them, the grasshopper hordes failed to make the broad jump when they reached the river and fell to their death.

GIANT FOREST—Plans for the measurement of all visitors to Crystal Cave are being considered by authorities of the Sequoia National park as an expedient for the safety of tourists, since the nerve-racking experience of Thaddeus Brown of Lemoore, Brown, a person of portly proportions, was imprisoned for three days in Hell's Crack, the entrance to the Cave. He had no difficulty in squeezing through the entry, but on return found his girth was too great to permit his passage.

His pitiful cries attracted rangers. At a consultation of experts it was determined not to blast away the rock for fear of injuring the prisoner as well as ruining the delicate formations of the cave. For three days Brown was obliged to fast until he reduced sufficiently for rangers despite his touching outcries, to drag him through the aperture.

A machine for making raised embroidery in silver and gold is the invention of a man in Lyons. The stitch is a copy of an ancient form of embroidery and gives an impression of handwork. This machine is the result of seven years of study and is the first one that has been successful in using the metallic thread.

Three of Robert Burns' manuscripts, apparently genuine, have been found in Dunfermline among the belongings of a confectioner who died thirty years ago.

HAPPYLAND WILL BE SOLD AT AUCTION; LOVE NOT THERE

F. B. Silverwood Home, Made for Bride, Is Offered to Highest Bidder

"Happyland" is to be sold tomorrow. This beautiful foothill home of F. B. Silverwood is located in Oak Grove avenue of southeastern Eagle Rock. The prominence of the widely known clothing merchant and the publicity given him in connection with his marriage a few months ago make the auction of more than passing interest.

It will be recalled that last November Mr. Silverwood and Mrs. "Happy" Winkler of San Francisco were married. They had a honeymoon in Hawaii and returned to the new nest named in honor of the wife. But it seems happiness did not dwell therein and the couple has separated, apparently for all time.

Athletic Club at Hollywood
An association is being organized at Hollywood to erect an athletic club building to cost $200,000 in that section. The first board of directors was elected as follows: Frank Galoway, Fred Smith, C. E. Toberman, George Eastman, Joseph McLellan, James Infield, Robert Dexter, Norman McMillen and F. A. Hartwell.

Better School for Tujunga
Wilmet Pacher, Judd Jenkins and Zoe M. Gilbert, Tujunga's school trustees, have been making things move. They have sold the $18,000 of bonds which the people of the district voted unanimously last spring, despite the general depression in the bond market, and have bought a tract of five acres on Palm Drive for a second school site and another tract of one and nineteen-hundredths acres on El Centro street just east of the present school to be used as a playground. The construction of one or more bungalows to be used as temporary school buildings, and forty new desks and other equipment have been ordered in anticipation of the increase in school attendance this year.

C. of C. to Get Busy
Tuesday evening will mark the beginning of the meetings of the Eagle Rock Chamber of Commerce, after a vacation of three months during the summer. With the rapid growth of that city it is necessary that such organization be on the job.

Tujunga Bank Opens October 1
The Tujunga Valley bank expects to be ready for business by October 1. Arrangements have been made for temporary quarters in the Verdugo Foothills Record building until the bank's own home can be erected at the southwest corner of Sunset and Monte Vista. Work on the latter is to be rushed with the hope of having it ready for occupancy by the holidays.

Complete Church Building
Following mass at the home of Mrs. Mary Forster in Tujunga yesterday morning, the Catholic congregation proceeded to the church lot on Manzanita drive and Michigan avenue and completed the new church building. The foundation and floor had been laid so it didn't take long to raise the walls and roof of the structure. The women then served a sumptuous dinner.

Double Program and Jazz Band Features Palace Grand Tonight

For the first time since 1917 Ethel Clayton produced a picture in New York, her latest vehicle being an adaptation of the novel, "The Price of Possession," by the English author, Winifred Boggs. The picture, which will be shown at the Palace Grand theatre tonight is the first Miss Clayton has done since her return from Europe.

The scenes are laid in Australia and the London suburbs. The story, replete with dramatic situations, revolves around two nephews, one of whom steals a birthright and flees to Australia. The other nephew follows and kills him. His wife accepts the birthright, but, after intense inward struggles and numerous dramatic incidents she gives it up.
William Farnum has added to his laurels in his latest role in "His Greatest Sacrifice." This picture has many touching as well as hair-raising scenes and Farnum shows his ability to emoté as well as to show his temper when riled.
Col. Jackie Connors, Jr., with his New Orleans Five, the jazz band which made some of your dance records, is expected to turn them away tonight with a full knowledge of what jazz really is as they are in a class with Ted Lewis.

The WORLD OVER By FRANKLIN B. MORSE. PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

The University of Hawaii football team has started in functioning for the season. Needless to say, the season has been mapped out with a view to working up to the big game which is scheduled to be played on Christmas day against the University of Oregon which will make the trip to the Islands.

Last year the University of Hawaii played its Christmas day game against the University of Nevada and was defeated by the close score of 14 to 0. Incidentally, it will be remembered that the Nevadans scored one of the only two touchdowns made against the great team of the University of California.

Needless to say, the Honoluluans learned a lot in that particular game against the mainlanders, and there is every likelihood that it will be a vastly strengthened organization against which the Oregonians will compete. Coach Klum is counting on plenty of weight in the line and beef and speed in the backfield to overcome the mainlanders this year.

From all accounts the Islanders do not lack in material, both veteran and among the newcomers, and even the latter practically all have had some experience at the game so that no time need be wasted on the teaching of the fundamentals, other than to keep the men drilled in the practice of properly catching and falling on the ball and tackling.

In the meantime, the outlook for the University of Oregon is a more or less precarious one and there will have to be a lot of work done to whip a machine into shape that will be able to make a creditable showing on the schedule to be played which includes a number of distinctly formidable teams.

"Say" Huntington is coaching the Oregonians and he is going to have no little difficulty plugging up the holes left vacant by the non-return of such players of last year's team as Bill Steers, Brick Losie, Fat Mautz and Nish Chapman. In fact, there are many who are dubious as to whether or not conditions are such that a team any better than last year's can be whipped into shape, and last season's team was a long cry from the standard that Oregon has been able to set for herself in the past.

As far as their game against the University of California is concerned, there is not a California undergraduate who will not allow an Oregonian to name his own odds. About all that seems to interest the followers of the Bear is, how much of a score that animal will be able to run up against the Northerners. It is a number of years since the two teams met and the indications are that the result will not be a pleasant memory to Huntington's charges.

Last season, the comparatively green Stanford university team took the measure of Oregon by a score of 10 to 0, a result that few followers of the game expected. It was one of the outstanding surprises of the season and the hopes of Stanford faded up as a result, and there were visions that they would give the Bears a battle in their big game. The mauling administered the Palo Altans is a matter now of football history.

SPORTS CHATTER By BILL UNMACK PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

Bunny Brief who made a home run record in the Coast league when he was with Salt Lake in 1916 is still slamming out homers into the bleachers. His Coast league record still stands at thirty-three. Today Brief is with the Kansas City team in the American Association league, and has scored thirty-one homers for the season. The former A. A. record was twenty-nine, made a number of years ago by Gavy Cravath, then with Minneapolis. Sort of a coincidence that Cravath is now with the team that Brief belonged to when the latter made his Coast league record, and Brief broke the record that Cravath set in the American Association league.

All over the country various clubs undertake to stage either swimming or track events and for some unknown reason almost at the eleventh hour decide to postpone the event for a week or two weeks later. It is one of the most unfair things to the athlete that can be done. The matter has been brought to a head in New York by Charlie Parkinson of the Morningside A. C. protesting to the A. A. U. the postponement of a cross country race. It is the first time such a protest has ever been made, but is a legitimate one and is now being very seriously considered by the A. A. U. heads. An athlete or a swimmer must so arrange his training as to be on edge just at the time of a set event, and if a change is made it is attended with disastrous results. Postponements in the past have not been given serious consideration, and the present case is one that all A. A. U. branches are closely following.

There is one home run record that Babe Ruth is not likely to break. It is that of scoring two homers in the one inning. Yes, it has been done. Back in 1880, C. Jones of Boston did the trick playing Buffalo, his team scoring ten times in the eighth inning. Again in 1894, Robert Lowe of Boston made two homers in one inning, and incidentally hit four home runs in the game which was against Cincinnati.

We note an eastern dispatch which states that a ball player in some small-league has broken the record for the largest number of hits in a season. The player in question is credited with 259 hits and Sisler's mark of 258 hits last season is quoted as the record. In present day baseball Sisler's mark is the National League record, but if we go back to the old days when bases on balls counted as hits we find that Denny Lyons of Philadelphia has 284 to his credit. However Sisler's record is not equal to the 280 hits made last year in the Pacific Coast league by Miller of Oakland, nor the 260 also made last year is a minor league record. In so far as the Coast league is concerned the previous record was 272 hits in a season and was made in 1904 by Frisk, Seattle.

Russia Again Faces Famine; Death List Greater, Prediction

By EDWIN HULLINGER
United Press Staff Correspondent
MOSCOW, Sept. 26.—Russia faces another famine—which will come next year and reap death among the poor of the provinces with even more swiftness than it did this year.

This was the prophecy of M. Kamenoff, the soviet director of famine relief, expressed in an exclusive interview with the United Press.
Kamenoff declared the farmers had been unable to obtain sufficient seed for autumn planting.
"The 1920 harvest was entirely consumed by the middle of October. Thereafter the Volga district gave absolutely nothing. Everything we ate had to be imported from the other provinces of Russia where the harvests were only 45 per cent normal," he declared.

'Power of Harmony' Subject of Lecture by Dr. F. L. Riley

Taking as his subject, "The Power of Harmony," Sunday morning, Dr. F. L. Riley made the following observations:

"By far the greater number of our troubles, both physical, financial and mental, are due fundamentally to a lack of harmony. This fact is being recognized to the extent that universities are instituting chairs, the purpose of which is to prescribe certain classes of music which science has demonstrated will not alone alleviate but prevent and cure disease.

"The results of vibrations emanating from coarse, vulgar and destructive element in comparison to the refined, intellectual and constructive, are very interesting and instructive. A speaker familiar with the science can not alone tell by the expression of the faces of his audience, but also by coming in touch with the vibrations of his auditors, whether they are responsive.

"The effect of the human vibration for good or evil is as yet but little understood. An experimenter seeking another result, constructed what he later named the Eidophone, which somewhat resembles one-half of a snare drum; upon sprinkling sand upon the head of the drum and sounding a certain note on some musical instrument for a few minutes causes the sand to separate in such manner that the outline of some particular vegetation or flora will appear. The sounding of another note will invariably produce another particular specimen.

"In localities where windows become variegated with frost crystals in winter, the designs upon the windows of the refined are in strong contrast to those upon the windows of the slum district, butcher shops, etc.

"The curative efficacy of the vibrations of music was understood by the Greeks more than 2000 years ago.

"In the case of the injured in the late world war, thousands were relieved and hundreds cured, where all other means failed, by scientifically applied vibrations of music.

"While it is a fact that under certain conditions, certain ailments will follow certain causes, still the most important fact in this connection is, that favorable vibratory conditions can be induced which will counteract and overcome the so-called natural results."

Dr. Riley is willing to answer any question in connection with the subject under discussion. He does not ask anyone to accept his viewpoint unless it appeals to one's judgment. Each one should seek for truth, he says. The subject of the lecture for next Sunday morning is "The Riddle of the Sphinx."

BAPTIST RALLY DAY SET NEW RECORD IN ATTENDANCE

Sunday School Showing Proves
Excellent; Rev. E. E. Ford Speaks on 'Drifting'

Though the hottest day of the season, records were broken at the Baptist church yesterday. The Sunday school, with Roy L. Kent as superintendent, was out for an attendance of 400; it went over the top with an attendance of 435, while the offering was nearly $60.

The "Tri Mu" class, composed of young men, set its goal for 100. The registration showed 102. A large class graduated from the primary department to become juniors, while a larger class moved up into the intermediate ranks. The house was overflowing at both services, a large number of chairs being necessary to accommodate the crowds. It was a great day in the history of the Baptists. Sixty-five young people attended last night's service.

The pastor, Rev. Ernest E. Ford, took for his morning theme, "Drifting Away From God," basing what he said on the Bible verse as found in Heb. 2:1, "Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things that were heard, lest haply we drift away from them."

Extracts From Sermon

Following are extracts from the sermon by Rev. Ford:

"This is Rally day. We have just come from a wonderful session of our Sunday school, records have been broken in attendance and offerings.
This has also been Commencement day for a large number of our splendid boys and girls. Where shall we put them? Every corner is filled.
Let us pray the Great Architect that He will show us His plans for the enlargement of our church.

"Rally means re-ally. The flag is being pulled at by the enemy; what shall we do? We'll rally around the flag boys, we'll rally once again, shouting the battle cry of victory."

"The most deadly fault of the Christian church today is the drifting away from the path of duty, right and safety. The tragedy of the age is not so much outbreking sin among Christians, but in their preoccupation of business and pleasure, the boat of their lives swings out into the current, and unheeded, drifts away from God.

"Very few grasp the oars and pull down stream, but to fail to point the boat up stream and pull brings the same result. The text carries a warning, 'Let us give earnest heed to the things we have heard.' The things which were heard when God spoke to us through His Son as Heb. 1:1 tells us. It is my solemn conviction that it is a greater sin to despise and reject God's free gift of eternal life, than to transgress the commandments of His justice. The Christian life can be lived shabbily or gloriously. We can follow Christ 'afar off' or we may walk by His side. Why do God's children drift away from His side? Through neglect of church attendance, going to Him in prayer, daily reading of His word; neglect of these duties and you will find yourself drifting down the stream of sin away from God. If you stop rowing you are lost. The current of sin is swift and wide."

Mrs. H. C. Reid Hurt In Collision With Milk Delivery Truck

A serio-comic story on "How the Milk Was Spilled" might have been written about the collision taking place on Maple avenue Saturday evening.

Mrs. H. C. Reid of 818 Orange Grove avenue, accompanied by her neighbor, Mrs. Kate Huddleston, were motoring to a friend's home for some lettuce which is fed the poultry at the Reid place.

Jessup's Dairy delivers milk by motor truck and the drivers have the habit of running their cars on the wrong side of the street when convenient. This holds true with every deliveryman.

But as Mrs. Reid says, they should use discretion in so doing. The milk truck got right in her way and in the crash which followed, the woman driver was thrown against the steering wheel and injured. Dr. F. M.
Collier was called to attend her while the motor cars went to the garages for repairs.

AUTO FIRE SOON PUT OUT

An explosion which didn't blow up happened at 6:45 o'clock Friday night when wires became crossed in a car driven by T. G. Martin on San Fernando road. Near Winchester avenue the hood exhibited evidences of friction and Mr. Martin immediately concluded that the gasoline tank was likely to explode. He left the driver's seat hurriedly, but paused at the nearest phone to send in a call for the chemical engine.
The sparks were extinguished with a fire brigade. The boys found the fire by lifting the hood.

A DIFFERENT ART

The fact that a woman can roast her neighbors is no evidence of her capacity as a cook.

Resolutions Adopted

Two resolutions were adopted, one to petition congress to grant a pension of $100 per month to the widow of the Gen. Henry A. Green, organizer and commander of the Ninety-first, and a petition to the city park board of Los Angeles to combine with the memorial grove of state trees, a memorial forest.

Then came the last opportunity of the reunion for buddy to meet buddy, as different units gathered on allotted places on the field and exchanged reminiscences while the bands gave alternate concerts.

The Ninety-first will answer assembly at Seattle next year when the third annual reunion is held. San Diego made a bid for the event, but the husky cohorts from the north out-voted the bay city, and Seattle was chosen.

The following Glendale veterans saw service with the Ninety-first division: Joe Wilson, H. Hill Mc-Gillis, Owen C. Emery, Ed Krachey, Fred Nichols, Homer Bullard, Charley Lund, J. Murray Durham, Leo Lilly, Roger Baker, Owen Dibern, Ervin Van Osdoll, Carl Miller, Percy McIntyre and Donald Goode.

Sixth Annual Bible Conference Will Be Held October 5 to 9

The Sixth Annual Bible Conference will be held at the local Presbyterian church October 5-9. These conferences in past years have attracted many visitors from Los Angeles and all of San Fernando valley. The great and commonly accepted fundamental truths of God's word are emphasized by every speaker. The committee says a splendid list of speakers has been secured for this year. The leading speaker will be Dr. Cortland Myers, who was a pastor in New York City for sixteen years and also of Tremont Temple, Boston, the largest Baptist church in the world, for twelve years. He is the author of numerous books. He has traveled all over the world and preached to more than fifteen millions of people.

Dr. Myers is well known to many Glendale people and will doubtless be warmly welcomed here. He is a lucid thinker, a magnetic speaker, and brings messages which have gripped the attention of thousands of people in many of the large cities of the United States and Europe.

FICTION LIBRARY POPULAR

It took mankind many thousand years to discover the circulation of the blood, but it hasn't taken Glendale womankind more than two days to discover the circulation of the fiction library being maintained at 122 West Broadway in the new quarters of the Women's Exchange.

"I was surprised at the number of people who came in for books the first day," declared Miss Mary Hovey this morning. "We thought it might take a couple of weeks for the people to get started coming. We opened Tuesday."

If we all said what we pleased, we would not all hear what we pleased.

"The Best—Why Use Any Other"

Believe Training of Youth to Mean War

By CARL D. GROAT
United Press Staff Correspondent
BERLIN—Pacifists believe the old war-making crowd is trying to train German youth for a new "Krieg," through compulsory physical culture.

The draft of a law which the national committee for physical culture has made had led them to believe this law would merely be a substitute for the compulsory service law, now dead. This draft provides that children shall be trained "throughout their school years until they become of age, and that no one shall have papers for working positions unless he can prove he has fulfilled the necessary training, either in the schools, in turn or sport societies."

The Versailles treaty provides against organization of societies for war-training.

And the pacifists contend this new law would not only serve to uphold the youth for a new war, but would place restrictions on the freedom with which a workman could get a position. On the other hand, the promoters hold that it is well to build a strong nation, and point to the overwhelming post-war sport movement as evidence that Germany wants body-building.

The "Freiheit," organ of the Independent Socialists, writes: "We do not desire to appear to be enemies of sport; we have too often asserted that for workers it is advisable to have a harmonious upbuilding of the body. Labor, however, would do well to remember that it is high time to make up for the war losses in spiritual strength."

HAVE YOU USE FOR DEER?

PASADENA—Who wants two deer, excellent for exhibition and zoological purposes? They have been offered to the city park, which, however, has not the necessary funds to make the purchase. The deer were quoted at $250 each, which during the hunting season, was considered by the owner, a very liberal figure.
Park Superintendent Albrecht states that he would like them, but fears they would be too expensive to maintain in the comfort to which they are accustomed.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC FACTS AND FICTION OPENS UP BRANCH IN THIS CITY

Prominent Instructors Are Glendale Residents; Fall
Term Is Under Way

The California Academy of Music of Los Angeles has opened a branch at Brand Boulevard and Lexington Drive and is starting a fall semester for the study of vocal culture, the piano, violin, harp and other instruments.

"Our institution will provide a type of music study that is not to be excelled in America," stated Bert Short, local manager. "We have chosen the highest type of instructors obtainable for our classes."

Miss Elsa Breidt, who heads the piano department, began her public career at the age of six when she made her first concert appearance in her native city of Chicago. Two years later she appeared in the Thomas orchestra playing the Beethoven Concerto. Within a short time she forged to the front as a youthful prodigy of unlimited promise. During her years of study in America she made frequent appearances with the New York Symphony orchestra and with David Bispham, Marcella Sembrich, Jeanne Jomelli and Johanna Gadsdi. Abroad Miss Breidt was accorded unusual honors being received throughout Europe as a pianist of the first magnitude. During her continental tours she appeared with the Berlin Philharmonic orchestra, Cologne orchestra and in numerous recitals. She acquired a reputation as an instructor of unusual ability. Her sympathetic understanding of her individual pupils gave her a large following. Miss Breidt is well known in the musical circles of the coast and has made her home in Glendale for the past few years.

Studies Under Masters
Mrs. Pearl G. Curran, also a resident of Glendale, has a foremost position among the musical educators of America. She has the distinction of having studied under many of the most eminent masters of both America and Europe. Upon her return to this country she became head instructor of the advanced piano department for the Lichtenstein School of Music, St. Louis. Mrs. Curran is known as an instructor of unusual ability.

"Her pupils praise Mrs. Curran highly for her kind disposition and the thoroughness of her work," stated Mr. Short.

Mrs. Hernandez Lee, likewise a resident of this city, has been a student of many noted musicians since early childhood. Some of her studies were conducted abroad. Specializing in theory and pedagogy, she has had the advantage of study under Dr. Hugh A. Clark, of the University of Pennsylvania and Dr. Thomas Tapper, of the Damrosch School of Music, New York City.

The violin department is under the direction of Julius Bierlich, who for two years has been concert master for the Los Angeles Symphony orchestra and for twenty years a member of this organization. He has also appeared in the People's orchestra for two years and in recent years has been the second concert master of the Philharmonic orchestra. Although a native of Switzerland, Mr. Bierlich has been a resident of Los Angeles for many years. His father was also a noted violinist.

"We feel fortunate," declared Mr. Short, "in obtaining the services of so eminent a musician to conduct our violin department."

Business Is Good, Asserts Louis Luce, E. Colorado Street

"Things are certainly humming here in Glendale," stated Louis Luce recently. "I think all the business houses are doing well. Even the small places around here are all doing a good business."

Mr. Luce is now operating a fruit and vegetable stand at 507 East Colorado avenue near South Glendale avenue. He is more than pleased both with the business and the class of customers coming his way.

STATUE IS IN BIG DEMAND

Albert G. Wheelon and Lacey Hoge, local members of the American Legion and who are the sole agents for "The Spirit of the American Doughboy," the organization's nationally selected statue emblem, received last week a shipment of 233 of the miniature statues. The young men, who are turning five per cent of the net proceeds over to the sick fund of the Glendale Post of the American Legion, report that practically all of the fifty have been delivered.

TOO MUCH FOR MUSIC LOVERS
Wud Tunkins says what broke up the singing society was the threat of the richest man in town to foreclose mortgages unless his daughter was the leading soprano.

Bombshells were first made in Holland in 1495.

INCLUDED IN NEW LIBRARY BOOKS

Many Volumes Are Released to Public; How to Teach In Sunday School Told

A good selection of books of fiction, books on architecture and paintings, as well as on other interesting subjects are included in those which have been released for distribution at the public library on Harvard street during the past week.

There have been many calls made on the library for books dealing with methods of teaching in the Sunday school. To meet this demand a number of books of an impartial nature, and which might be applied to any of the Sunday schools, have been procured and added to the library. Other books released during the week include:

"Hiker Joy," by James B. Connolly. A book which the reader will find to be a "thriller," dealing as it does with adventure on land and sea.

"Terry," a tale of the hill people, by Charles Goff Thomson. A vivid story of life in the Philippines, by an American officer.

"A Flower of Monterey," by Katherine B. Hamill. A romance embodying a beautiful picture of the early days in Monterey and California.

Shoe Department Is Now Being Installed by Jackson & Clark

Already the firm of Jackson & Clark, on the southwest corner of Broadway and Maryland avenue, is making improvements. This week shelving is being constructed for a shoe department which is to be installed. Arthur Jackson and W. W. Clark have been in business but a short time here, but they expect to keep right on expanding with Glendale. They did not lose any time joining the Chamber of Commerce and are taking an active interest in furthering the development of Glendale.

Orphan Cats Prove Grateful; They Take Couple of Prizes

The "Orphan Cats," whose lives were saved by a classified ad in The Glendale Evening News, by which they found a foster mother, did not disappoint. They took not one prize but two. With the foster mother they took third prize for litter. The kittens took second prize, $2.50 cash. The foster mother took first prize as the only one entered of her class. Mrs. Stella Goodman, of 645 North Central avenue, the owner of these prize cats, also entered a Persian kitten of four months that took a second prize.

Photo Service Kept Busy; New Equipment Is Being Installed

"We have been busier the last couple of weeks than we have ever been before," stated Richard Davis, proprietor of the Davis Photo Service, 107 South Maryland avenue, recently. "I have been working about twenty-four hours a day. We are so rushed that we have pretty nearly got to double our equipment. We have had to double the capacity of our developing tanks and may have to work two shifts. Our new tanks have arrived already and our other apparatus has been ordered."

BEST EQUIPPED MINE
The Britannia colliery, South Wales, is considered by expert mining engineers to be the most modern and best equipped in the world. It is worked solely by electrical power, and is probably the only colliery in the kingdom which does not use horses and does not raise a train of rubbish.

Assert Some People Alive In 1925 Will Not Die; Grow Better

"People alive in 1925 and obedient to the tenets of truth will never die but be gradually restored to perfection of body and mind and live on the earth forever in a state of happiness."

So asserts the International Bible Students' association represented in Glendale yesterday by C. R. Kneemeyer, who spoke in the afternoon at the Knights of Pythias Hall, and in the evening by W. R. Mitchell, who spoke at the I. O. O. F. hall.

"The earth will gradually be improved, the deserts made productive, the waste places inhabited," and the whole world become a fit habitation sufficient to support the entire human race with abundance," quoted the lecturers from the Bible. They called attention to the first six verses of Revelation and interpreted them as meaning that Christ's kingdom should be established on earth and death conquered. They stated that at the second coming of Christ the obedient ones of the human race would be restored to exactly what Adam lost, perfect manhood and a perfect home.

With Divine Authority

"Twenty-four of the holy prophets of Jehovah foretold the coming time of such restoration of man," declared Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Kneemeyer. "These prophets spoke with divine authority. The disciples of Jesus, knowing of the testimony of these holy prophets, propounded to him the question: 'Master, tell us how we may know of the time of thy presence and the end of the world.' The answer of Jesus to this question was clear and conclusive, understandable by men when the events mentioned should be fulfilled. The answer shows, in connection with other scriptures that the end of the world and the setting up of Messiah's kingdom will mark the beginning of the restoration of man and from that time forward millions of people now living will never die."

The phrase, "end of the world," according to the International Bible students does not mean the annihilation of this planet but only the end of another epoch of existence similar to one ended by the flood. They assert that the requirement of eternal life will come through the development of a perfect food.

T. F. Peirce Insists Pacific Desk Company Is Glendale Concern

President Harding transacts his business in Washington, but he lives at Marion, Ohio. And so he is a citizen of Marion even though his office is in the capital of the nation. This is what T. F. Peirce, managing director of the Pacific Desk Company, Los Angeles, says when anyone dares question the fact that his is a Glendale concern.

Mr. Peirce says that fully 75 per cent of his entire organization, from himself to the office boy, live in Glendale and this, Peirce adds with a smile as he coins a new word, "sure makes us Glendallians."

So hot up does Peirce become on this subject that he determined to publish an official "welcome to our city" to the new Glendale State bank. This welcome you will find in this issue.

The fact that the Pacific Desk company furnished all the office furniture in the new bank, of course, was an added incentive for this generous welcome. But "Ted" Peirce says that aside from this, his loyalty to the city of Glendale where he lives, was strong enough to prompt this hearty welcome to an institution that holds forth such potential benefits to his home town.

DR. C. M. CRIST IS BACK TO MOSES IS SPEAKER ON TOPIC, COMPLETE LIFE TOPIC OF SERMON BY REV. EDMONDS

Large Congregation Sunday at Methodist Church; Talk at Night Given by Woman Finds Faith That Saves and Great Reservoir of Truth,
Pastor, Points Out

Dr. C. M. Crist, pastor of the First Methodist church, yesterday morning delivered an earnest message to a large congregation containing many visitors. His subject was: "Complete in Christ" and attention was directed by Mr. Crist to two fundamental truths in the Bible:

First, that man was created in the image of God, the highest type of creation, excelling all other forms. Dr. Crist declared that the biggest thing in life is to attain unto the full measure of manhood or womanhood by co-operation with God. He said that to be's greater than to do or to get and that the acquirement of a proper spiritual status was worthy of the most intense, continuous effort.

Second, God revealed in the image of man, Christ taking upon Himself humanity and becoming in every sense of the word the son of man, bearing all our infirmities and being subject to all our temptations and rising superior and victorious over all.

Gives Zest to Life

"The personality of Jesus alone gives an added zest to life," quoted Dr. Crist from Count Tolstoi. The pastor went on to say that the phrase "son of man" was a favorite expression with Christ Himself.

"Not by culture, not by refinement, not by self-righteousness, but only through Christ can we be complete," declared Dr. Crist. "The complete life may be modest and simple in manner, but it touches and blesses others. The greatest charm of Christ's life was that He helped all with whom He came in contact who would be helped. This is our attainable ideal."

Mrs. S. E. Logie, a resident of Glendale who had a varied experience in church and mission work, preached at the evening service upon the subject of "Knowing God." It was largely a recital of her own observations upon Christianity. She urged upon her audience the joy of knowing God personally.

At the Presbyterian church Sunday morning Rev. W. E. Edmonds preached from the text, "And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, He expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning Himself." (Luke 24:27). A resume follows:

"It has not been generally understood that we must go back to Moses to know the life of Jesus Christ. The five books of Moses are the foundation. You know that in the last 25 years there has raged a terrific battle on the inspiration of the Old Testament. I stand for absolute inspiration of the whole. We see all the greatest men are on this basis. Now the great attacks of criticism are upon the authority of the history in Genesis. Some folks say, 'Oh well, let the scholars attend to that. We will just attend to living.' This is where the devil gets in his work. If you discount Moses in the least, you discount Jesus Christ. They stand or fall together. If you refuse to accept Moses, your redemption is founded on a basis of sticks. Christ continually referred back to Moses. The Holy Spirit did not have one form of inspiration for Moses and another for the later scriptures. If Christ had believed in an evolutionary beginning, He would not have quoted Moses upon it. And so with all His other references to Moses."

"And the farther and deeper we delve the truer we find Moses. The latest accredited facts of scientific research and recent discoveries corroborate these sacred books. We do not shut up the door to investigation. But when critics ask us to accept this, that or the other invention instead of Moses, we want none of it. If modern science has it all to say, where does the Holy Spirit come in?"

Compare with Others

"What does the book say for itself? Compare it with the little silly statements of the other religions. Look at the ethical system outlined in the decalogue, did you ever find any critics whittling that down? They don't dare to. A jurist was converted just by reading that. He realized it must have been given by God, and if so, all was from God."

"Come back to the great truth! In the teachings of Moses we have the fundamentals of our faith. By faith we understand that the worlds were framed. When we come to the lamb which was Abel's sacrifice,—why Christ was there in that lamb. The story of Isaac going up to Moriah to be sacrificed, what are you going to do with that ram there ready to be taken in his place? We are the Isaacs, and Jesus is provided instead of us. Jesus Christ lay down His life as the sacrifice; 'Behold the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world.'"

"In Moses we find faith that saves; that sanctifies; that separates. In Moses we find a great reservoir of truth, overflowing down all the way to us. When the great Eddystone light-house was done it came to a great test of storm. Engineers were out anxiously watching with their telescopes to learn if it stood. At last they saw, and shouted, 'She stands!' and the people took it up. 'It stands!' And so the Word of God stands. Oh, make it the man of your counsel, your trust, firmly planted on it. 'And beginning at Moses and the prophets He expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning Himself.'"

Decree on Packers Might Be Modified, Hint From Officials

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The department of justice has indicated it has decided definitely to reopen for proposed modification the Palmer consent decree, restricting the activities of the "big five" packers to the meat industry.

Attorney General Daugherty filed a motion with the District of Columbia supreme court asking it to vacate a recent order allowing the National Wholesale Grocers' association to intervene in the consent decree proceedings for the purpose of preventing any modification of the decree.

Kindness for Living Instead of Awaiting Death, Pastor Urges

"Enjoying Funeral Flowers Beforehand" was the subject yesterday morning of Rev. Clifford A. Cole, minister at the Central Christian church. He called it "A Lesson in Values."

Kindness and friendship towards the living instead of awaiting the death of our acquaintances before paying them tribute was the principle point developed by Rev. Cole. His congregation seemed in hearty sympathy with the idea.

Special music was a feature at both services of worship. The subject of the evening discourse was "A Voice Out of the Darkness."

The church building is to be moved back on the rear of the church property while a new foundation is laid for the edifice. It will then be moved back on the new foundation and used until the new building is completed, according to Rev. Cole. The interior was not large enough to accommodate the congregation yesterday.

Divine Revelation Is Continued, Is Claimed by Rev. Calderwood

"Divine revelation did not cease when the last chapter of the Bible was written," declared Rev. C. M. Calderwood, pastor of the Congregational church yesterday morning in his sermon upon "The Incompleteness of Knowledge." Said he:

"The great source of religious information is the Bible but the learning and experience of the present may add to our religion. But even with the Bible and divine inspiration our knowledge is still incomplete. We know our religion only in part and our knowledge of the great realities of our religion is not complete. We don't know all about any of it. We only know in part concerning God, judgment, the soul of man and life to come. We do know some things about these subjects and we should use what we do know in order to grow and acquire the ability to learn more. We should use the part we know in order to learn some of the things we don't know. We cannot exhaust or define the great things of our religion.

Some people think it queer that we hold a religion which we don't know all about. I would rather have a religion, so great in its scope and so boundless in its possibilities that I can't fairly comprehend it, than a religion so limited that I can easily understand it."

At the evening services Rev. C. M. Calderwood delivered a scholarly lecture upon "Jewish Religious Beliefs in the Time of Jesus." A duet was sung in the morning by Mrs. Gladys L. Sherman and Charles Comfort.

BIG CROWD ATTENDS RECEPTION BEHALF NEW STATE BANK

Quarters In Central Building and Very Complete; Open for Business Today

"Open Glendale State bank on morning of September 26. Letter and license follows."

The above message was received by officers of the Glendale State bank late Saturday from Jonathan S. Dodge, superintendent of banking, which permits the institution to do business today.

The first commercial account in the Glendale State bank was made by Earle C. Pendroy. He handed his check for $10,000 to A. R. Eastman, first vice president and in general charge of the institution's affairs.

And the first term savings account totaled $6850. The name of the depositor, for sufficient reasons, is not made known.

All this morning people have been pouring into the new bank making deposits and securing safe deposit boxes.

Thanks Expressed

"We desire to express our appreciation for the hearty support given our institution and for the attendance of the public at the reception Saturday night," said Vice President Eastman today.

The formal expression of thanks from the bank appears elsewhere in this issue of The Glendale Evening News.

Thousands of people attended the reception Saturday night at which time the spacious banking quarters in the Central building were thrown open for the first time to the public.

In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Toll, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Eastman, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lusby, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Braley, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Walker, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kimlin, Peter L. Perry and Oma Fish, all representing the directorate, and Messrs. Black and Farmer and Misses Black and Smith of the banking force. All stockholders also were invited to be in the line and many were.

Music, Punch, Flowers

During the evening an orchestra dispensed music while punch and wafers were served. Red carnations were given all in attendance.

Already the modern equipment, including the safe deposit vaults and sumptuous banking quarters with every convenience for customers have been described in these columns and many large accounts were promised Saturday night, so good did the institution look to the outsiders once inside.

Offer Large Premiums, Ventura County Fair

VENTURA, Sept. 26.—Sixty thousand dollars will be expended by the Ventura County Fair association to make the forthcoming show to be held at Seaside park, Ventura, October 5-9, the greatest exposition in the history of the organization.

Some of the items show $15,000 for livestock premiums, $5,000 poultry premiums while $6,000 is set aside in the agricultural department, $11,000 for amusements and $7,000 for the women's department. Horse races will have purses aggregating $5,000 and there will be $3,000 for the horse show.

Tom Mix, the movie actor, will have his hands full when he enters the Ventura arena as a charioteer. Supervisor Tom Clark, of Ventura, will be his opponent and as Clark has never been defeated, a thrill is to be expected. A race will be run each day for a purse of $500.

Will Rogers, another movie star, will be pitted against other wild west lariat throwers and stunt artists in a daily wild west performance. F. W. Mathieson, the Chicago sportsman, will have his world-famous string of horses on exhibition. They include Sinbad, The Vamp and Liberty Bond. C. K. Billings will exhibit the world-famous trotter, "Uhlman," and there will be hundreds of other famous horses and livestock entries.

Secretary L. P. Hathaway predicted that the Ventura show will be the greatest show in point of exhibits and displays ever given, for already the entries are taxing the accommodation of the fair grounds.

J. C. McCoy Is Convicted

WILLIAMSON, W. Va., Sept. 26.—J. C. McCoy was convicted of murder in the first degree today in connection with the three-day industrial battle here last May. The jury recommended mercy and McCoy will be sentenced to life imprisonment. McCoy is a grandson of Randall McCoy, leader of a clan in the Hatfield-McCoy feud. He is the first to be convicted of murder in connection with the mine warfare in Mingo county.

Army Recruiting Is Ordered, Says Letter to Mayor Robinson

With the army below the strength recently authorized by congress, recruiting has again been instituted at each post for local organizations, says a letter received by Mayor Spencer Robinson.

About seventy men will be enlisted for the coast defenses of Los Angeles, but owing to the reputation of Fort MacArthur as the best coast artillery station in the service, it is believed that the number of applicants will far exceed the vacancies.

Bandmen are particularly desired as efforts are being made to make the coast defense band one of the best in the service.

J. Whytock Puts on Fall Coat But Not on His Back

A new fall coat has been purchased by J. Whytock, 411 North Jackson street. In color it is a beautiful gray and, according to its appearance, the veterinary business must be very good despite the number of autos in use. It is guaranteed to be both water proof and moth proof. No, it was not made by a local tailor. A painter is doing the job and the coat is one of paint being applied to the doctor's home. The home didn't really need it, either.

Dependability

The absolute dependability of Westinghouse products well merits the implicit confidence reposed in this famous organization. For countless years the name Westinghouse has gone forth into the teeming ways of industry, carrying with it many of the most notable inventions by which man has benefited.

Particularly in all that concerns transportation and electrical advance has the name Westinghouse stood conspicuous.

And so, with this latest of Westinghouse triumphs—the new principle "oversize" battery of GREATER strength and LONGER life will this confidence be well earned.

There's a Westinghouse Battery for every make and model of car.
